The United States of America will be celebrating its 241st birthday on July 4, 2017. George Washington, first president of the U.S., said prayers daily, and recorded them in a journal. One of his Tuesday prayers includes:

"Bless the people of this land, be a Father to the fatherless, a Comforter to the comfortless, a Deliverer to the captives, and a Physician to the sick. Let Thy blessing be upon our friends, kindred and families. Be our Guide this day and forever through Jesus Christ in whose blessed form of prayer I conclude my weak petitions -- Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name..."

We view George Washington as a military and political leader; we don't necessarily view him as a spiritual leader. However, if one reads the prayers in his journal and the prayers in his speeches, it would be difficult to not conclude that he was a Spirit-led person.

As important as any legacy of this American leader, perhaps none is more important than that of praying for Divine guidance and direction, and for the people of this nation and their needs.

Here are several Scriptures that will help us in offering prayers for our nation and for the nations of the world:

II Chronicles 7:14, Psalm 33:13, Proverbs 14:34, Proverbs 9:10, Matthew 16:18, II Corinthians 6:17, Isaiah 6:1, Isaiah 60:1, Daniel 2:21, Matthew 6:10

I pray for the leaders of our nation every day (even the ones I don't agree with). Let us thank God for our freedom, and pray that we may be a nation that follows Him.

Blessings,
Gary

ADULT SUMMER BIBLE STUDY

"Ignite Your Generosity" by Chris McDaniel

Begins this Wednesday, June 21, 6:00PM, Library

No book needed. Just bring your Bible.

We all know it's important to be generous, but it can be hard to know what healthy stewardship looks like in our families and church. Come this Wednesday to begin your journey of pursuing generosity God's way, and discover the joy and fulfillment that comes from a life of giving freely to his plans and purposes.
